GERMAN COUNTER ATTACK IN CHAMPAGNE REGION DOES

FRENCH HAMMER AHEAD

Continue to Make Gains on St. Gobain
Plateau.—Observers Predict German Retreat to Belgian Line.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

The Germans are striking back in Champagne in a determined effort to divert Gen. Nivelle from his ceaseless pounding at the base of the broken Hindenburg line. The score of counter of offensive launched by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is along the 15-mile front starting about 25 miles east of Rheims. Attacking in this sector, the Germans have driven the French from some of their advanced trenches but have failed so far to make a serious impact on the defensive line.

In the meantime the iron semicircle which General Nivelle has thrown around the southern half of the great St. Gobain Plateau, is steadily contracting. If the French maintain their present rate of advance, it can only be a matter of a very few days before the entire plateau is in their grasp, leaving the last great natural barrier to Lorraine.

The British are moving forward steadily to the north, but the fact that they are capturing villages with cavalry indicates they are not yet in contact with the main German forces. The most advanced British outposts are still ten miles from the Cambrai line, where allied observers predict the Germans propose to make their real stand.

May Retreat to Belgium.

Military critics in Paris and London are reverting to the belief that the present German retreat is only part of a plan for a retirement to the tremendous scale of the Belgian border. In support of this theory it is pointed out that the withdrawal from Noyon and Bapaume salient, is rapidly forcing the whole German line into form of an immense right angle. The upright of the angle runs north and south for a 125 miles from Bapaume on the Belgian coast to Lorraine. The horizontal runs for about an equal distance east to the Lorraine border. It is into the apex of this angle that General Nivelle is bearing his way, threatening to cut the forces of the invaders squarely in two.

French Attacks Fail.

Berlin, wireless to Saville, March 29.—French efforts to recapture positions recently taken from them in the Champagne region were futile, arms headquarters announced today. The French sustained heavy losses in these attacks.

A French attack on the German lines in the region of Hill 304, northwest of Verdun, carried out on a wide front, also failed.

The British lost fifty-five men in prisoners in an engagement near Châlons.

Germans Are Entrenched.

London, March 29.—The Germans are now entrenched along the front over which the French and British have been advancing, according to a statement made today to the Associated Press by Major General F. B. Maurice.

General Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, said the positions taken up by the Germans forming the much advertised Hindenburg line, would not be retained until the French and British army brought up the heavy artillery.

Supply Depot.

Paris, March 29.—An important munitions and supply depot has been captured by the French, the war office announced today. Artillery fighting continued during the night between Soissons and Aisne and the French in contact everywhere with the German line. Soissons was bombarded by heavy guns.

WILL MISS HANGING; NO GALLOWS IN STATE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Spokane, Wash., March 29.—Because there is no place in which to hang him, Edward Mayberry, half breed Indian, probably will escape the death sentence imposed for the murder of Alice Vivian on the Colville reservation last August.

President Wilson granted Mayberry a thirty day respite so his lawyers could appeal from the sentence, on the ground that it could not be legally carried out in the state of Washington, where capital punishment is illegal. This respite will expire at noon from Sunday.

The woman killed by Mayberry was alleged to be his wife. He said the shooting was accidental. As it occurred on federal government property, United States Judge Rudkin was ahead and condemned Mayberry to death in spite of Washington's law against executions. The original hanging date was January 19.

Mayberry obtained a postponement until March 1, when it was necessary to find a place inside the state boundaries and yet not under state jurisdiction where a gallows could be legally erected. The federal building was deemed United States territory and plans were made to hang Mayberry on the roof. His lawyers objected and demanded a ruling by the treasury department. Mayberry remained calm and carpenters began measuring off a place to build the scaffold.

The treasury department ruled that the plan was illegal. President Wilson granted Mayberry a respite to April 10, at which time he will be imprisoned for life, likely.

Go Here, Says Chief

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE)

St. Louis, March 29.—Branch Rickey, the new president of the St. Louis Nationals, who faces a lawsuit because of his contract with the St. Louis Americans, nearly bumped into more trouble yesterday.

Rickey was driving home in his new motor car when a traffic policeman pulled him over.

"Which way?" asked Rickey.

"Right to the police station," exploded the cop, "you are using an old license. Orders are to arrest drivers not using the new license."

"Say," asked the policeman after he had climbed into the car, "What's your name?"

"Lemme out. Your luck is bad enough without being pinched."

"We have been looking up Jamesville owners of automobiles who are running on 1916 licenses and find that there are quite a number of them who have not as yet made application for new tags, even though their old ones were worthless three months ago," said Chief Champion this morning. He continued, "Unless local drivers can show receipts to prove that they have applied for 1917 licenses we will prosecute."

Washington, March 29.—President Wilson was today to be hopeful that the house of representatives will back its organization plan so that there will be no delay in affording him an opportunity to make his address on the war situation to a joint session of the war leaders are to be present. Reassuring reports of the minister of war, Gouchkine, to the front continued to be received. Everywhere the army responded with the greatest enthusiasm to his appeals and declared itself ready to continue fighting to the end. The same spirit is manifested in Petrograd, where there are daily processions of troops carrying banners inscribed "Liberty and Victory."

The resolution for congressional action to comply with the president's recommendation probably will be considered first in the house, leaving the senate to take it up later. The house foreign relations committee now is drafting various forms of resolutions to meet the executive recommendations. Another reason for an early house action is the probability that the resolution will carry an emergency appropriation. Appropriate measures must originate in the house.

Haircuts. A haircut is one of the few indignities that baldheaded men don't have to suffer.

It's a habit, the haircut is, among men with densely populated heads. But it is no ordinary habit. It's a habit a man has to hire another man to practise for him.

There are fashions in haircuts, as in everything else. The old-fashioned haircut circled the base of a man's brain and stopped. But today it goes on down the back of his neck to see what his collarbone's doing.

Generally speaking, the haircut is a misfortune. If it wasn't for haircuts we could abolish barbers.

CAPT. WIARD TELLS HOW LAW AND ORDER TRIUMPHS OVER VICE

Pennsylvania Town, Dominated By the Black Hand, Cleaned Up With Abolition of Saloons.

The triumph of law and order and the majesty and dignity of the state, with the lesson brought home to the audience by Captain Wiard last evening.

In a county mostly peopled by foreigners, where the brewery interests owned the majority of the political power and had dictated the political appointments for years, in a town where the ex-convict who had only been out of the penitentiary year and where nearly all the police officers and councilmen were hand in glove with organized crime and were receiving hush money. In such a district, the speaker said, the law went in and cleaned up the place thoroughly and completely. The local officials are apalled for malfeasance in office and over two hundred of the principal offenders who had instituted the reign of terror, and who had been responsible for innumerable murders, robberies and crimes of all kinds, were sent to the penitentiary.

It was like reading a whole series of black history books to hear this of the state of how the largest and richest band of bandits in the world was run to earth and exterminated.

And the sheer devilry of their operations, coupled with their immunity from law by reason of their protection by the liquor interests, made the chapter more exciting.

It was laid at South Sharon, Mercer county, Pennsylvania, and the time was ten years ago. Among the Italian laborers in the steel rolling mills had sprung on a seemingly little social and fraternal organization which had been founded by wealthy leaders of the movement. It was real.

It was a branch of the ancient Camorra of Sicily, which had been so powerful at one time in Italy as to dictate the policies of the kingdom. When the King Victor Emanuel came to the throne, he used his utmost efforts to exterminate this band and succeeded partially in driving them out. Some of the leaders came to the United States, and among the many Italian laborers in the steel mills near Pittsburgh, the nearest crossing, the plan being to set clear these sections of the streets to keep the danger of accident consequent to the ever increasing traffic at the corner, perhaps the principal intersection in the business district.

The illustrations to the story book were seen in the pictures "The King of the Black Hand," whose operations netted about $600,000 a year;

the perpetrating of a little woman, who took her life in her hand to perform this service; Mrs. Wolfe, courageous Italian woman who helped secure the testimony of witnesses to secure the conviction of members of the gang; and many others. The moral of the motto "The Way of the Transgressor is Hard" was enforced by the members of the penitentiary where so many of the gang are spending their time.

That the saloon business in this district deliberately fostered this crime and protected it in every way possible was also the lesson learned.

This evening Captain Wiard will have for his topic "Playing With Death." His meetings are entirely free, and everybody, especially the youth of the city, are invited to be present. Facts and figures do not lie, you can draw your own conclusions.

Community Meeting. The afternoon meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fox on Park avenue. Mrs. Fox was the leader of the afternoon, and Miss Sewell, Mrs. George Farnsworth and Mrs. W. Welsh made several selections, with Miss Brigham as accompanist.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Wiard, took as her subject "Help the Children," saying in part the full blown flowers of tomorrow will be the result of the care you take to protect the youth from the snares and temptations of intemperance. Sometimes the lowly and meek are leading the bunch by three names. When the lordly Bulldogs stalled off the doughty Bloodhounds last evening to the melody of two out of three, they practically undid their napkins for the banquet which was tendered the winner. Not long short of a calamity or the intervention of Providence can now remove them from the smell of the free beans that are to be theirs.

The "Y" Volleyball league is well nigh a thing of the past. The climax has been capped and the near-victors are rubbing their sleek, successful sides in triumph of the food of their will, stage at the expense of their less skilled competitors. Be it not imagined, however, contend the nicely dressed Bloodhounds, that last night's hurly burly was anything in the nature of a roughshod ride with those same bounds playing a minor part. Tormented tears of feverish anxiety were wrung from many a stoic Bulldog before the final whistle of the seven games of victory and ultimate success. Handily defeated, but not knocked around, is the contention of the bounds.

Leaving the "Y" Tuesday night a number of amiable Wildcats licked their chops reminiscently and with complacent smiles regarded the handily defeated Bloodhounds, that last night's hurly burly was anything in the nature of a roughshod ride with those same bounds playing a minor part. CITY BUYS PORTION OF OIL FOR STREETS

Half of Amount Needed Contracted for With Arrangements to Secure Other Part at Same Price.

Contract for fifty thousand gallons of street oil was made yesterday by the city at a price slightly in excess of the opening of today. The price is $6.60 a gallon. This is but half of the total amount to be paid, but the contract stipulates that a similar amount in addition, twenty per cent more or less, may be had at the same price.

The city's buying of the oil at the present time involves a saving close to one cent per gallon over the cost demanded by the refineries two months ago.

Superintendent of Streets Commissioner P. J. Goodman is planning an innovation on Janesville streets oiled last year. The plan is to cover just the center of the streets where wet has been the worst. The sides towards the gutters do not have oil.

It is believed that the regular oilways have suffered greatly with the hard winter it is true that the idea of just covering the center sections where wet has been the worst will produce some excellent thoroughfares at slight cost. It will also serve to eliminate dust.

But a single oiling petition has been filed to date and at the result of this Superintendents' oiling, Goodman foresees a big rush and strong demands for oiling immediately with the advent of real spring weather. Mr. Goodman urges all property owners desiring oil on their streets to secure their petitions at once and have them properly filed with City Clerk J. P. Hammann. The oiling is done the oiling schedule is liable to be disrupted to a large extent and it will be impossible to get on certain streets for some time after the petition for oiling is made.

To offset a rush at the last moment he is procuring the petitioning of the city to pass on the matter and the street department prepare for the work in its schedules.

The new auto zone markers for the restricted territory on East and West Milwaukee streets and North and South Main streets, will be erected some time next week. Mr. Goodman said today.

City Engineers are to hold a meeting on the 21st to determine standards to hold the white markers with blue lettered large heads which inform "No Parking Here." They are to be placed a distance of one hundred feet from the nearest crossing, the plan being to keep clear these sections of the streets to eliminate the danger of accident consequent to the ever increasing traffic at the corner, perhaps the principal intersection in the business district.

The illustrations to the story book were seen in the pictures "The King of the Black Hand," whose operations netted about $600,000 a year;

That the saloon business in this district deliberately fostered this crime and protected it in every way possible was also the lesson learned.

This evening Captain Wiard will have for his topic "Playing With Death." His meetings are entirely free, and everybody, especially the youth of the city, are invited to be present. Facts and figures do not lie, you can draw your own conclusions.

Community Meeting. The afternoon meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fox on Park avenue. Mrs. Fox was the leader of the afternoon, and Miss Sewell, Mrs. George Farnsworth and Mrs. W. Welsh made several selections, with Miss Brigham as accompanist.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Wiard, took as her subject "Help the Children," saying in part the full blown flowers of tomorrow will be the result of the care you take to protect the youth from the snares and temptations of intemperance. Sometimes the lowly and meek are leading the bunch by three names. When the lordly Bulldogs stalled off the doughty Bloodhounds last evening to the melody of two out of three, they practically undid their napkins for the banquet which was tendered the winner. Not long short of a calamity or the intervention of Providence can now remove them from the smell of the free beans that are to be theirs.

The "Y" Volleyball league is well nigh a thing of the past. The climax has been capped and the near-victors are rubbing their sleek, successful sides in triumph of the food of their will, stage at the expense of their less skilled competitors. Be it not imagined, however, contend the nicely dressed Bloodhounds, that last night's hurly burly was anything in the nature of a roughshod ride with those same bounds playing a minor part. Tormented tears of feverish anxiety were wrung from many a stoic Bulldog before the final whistle of the seven games of victory and ultimate success.

One more week of games: a perfunctory meeting of the Bulldogs and Terriers, and a real battle for second honors between the Wildcats and the Bloodhounds, and then the great culminating banquet they are:

Team... 15 9
Wildcats... 12 12
Bloodhounds... 9 13

Leaving the "Y" Tuesday night a number of amiable Wildcats licked their chops reminiscently and with complacent smiles regarded the handily defeated Bloodhounds, that last night's hurly burly was anything in the nature of a roughshod ride with those same bounds playing a minor part. WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair tonight, probably Friday, somewhat cloudy in east and south portions tonight. Weather in west and central portions on Friday. Westerly winds diminishing and becoming light and variable.

PACIFIST EXTREMES.

If the members of congress who are to assemble in extraordinary session on Monday next think that the country is calling them to Washington for the mere purpose of opposing the demands of the majority of the people of this nation that demand that the stars and stripes be respected on whatever seas or in whatever land they are flown and that the United States demands protection for its citizens wherever they may roam should disabuse their minds of the thought.

Senator Paul Hustung, Wisconsin's junior United States senator, voices the sentiment of the middle west when he states that congress must not merely mark time, but must take some decided action on the strained European situation, but also prepare for the future by proper legislation. The pacifists would have us maintain peace at any cost. Headed by Bryan and some of the other fanatics seeking the limelight of publicity, they would have congress merely say in mild tones to the foreign power in question, "please don't." They belong to the same class of citizens who would wait until half the town was burned up before ordering fire-fighting apparatus, and would not buy the poldock for the barn door until the horse was stolen. Not only must congress present a united front, but they must also make preparations for the future. They must make appropriations for supplies for a vast army, food, clothing, arms and ammunition. The calling out of a few detachments of state troops is not going to be a drop in the bucket of preparedness. True, these are our second line of defense, but such a meager one. The regular army is decrepit enough and the militia handicapped by red tape and inefficient officers, lack of proper supplies and equipment is practically helpless for more than guard duty, and to meet the great gap an immense force of trained men must be organized quickly and taught the rudiments of the soldier to be prepared for the future.

Congress has its work all out but for it and it can not shrink if they expect the people of this nation to have any faith in the administration and its powers. Possibly there are enough good, honest, fearless and strong men with foresight enough to see what a division in sentiment must mean to the world at large to prevent such an occurrence, and it is to be hoped these men will exercise their influence for concerted action and support of the administration. My country, right or wrong, but my country.

TRULY AMERICAN.

The program arranged for the meeting of citizens Friday evening is truly American. It is not a forced demonstration, but one of those gatherings planned to meet the actual conditions of the community and express the sentiment of the citizens. The musical feature, the parade arranged for, all are symbolic of the times and the feeling that this critical period in our nation's history there should be no question as to the attitude of residents of Rock county or Janesville in the minds of any.

Let the flags fly from every home, let them be displayed in every store, and the tiny flags or emblems of loyalty appear in the buttonholes of every man and on the waists of every woman. It means much when you stop to consider it what flag with its thirteen stripes and its white stars and blue field, it floated over many a battlefield and has never been haulled down in disgrace.

Born of necessity, it has waved in all parts of the globe. It has gained respect from the powers of sea and land and waves today over one people—Americans—its folds enveloping them in the protection that no European national emblem has ever given them, freedom and equality.

BEAUTY SPOTS.

There is no need to think that Janesville can not be made the beauty spot of the western country. All we have to do is to look to our own back yards, suggest improvements to the city fathers as to the advantages of a clean and beautiful river bank in the down town district, and the fact is accomplished. That is, theoretically, it is. In truth, it is just begun. Many a man clears his own yard, removes the rubbish and winter accumulation while his neighbor hedges his lot, theatty housewife does dust under a cupboard by planting vines or some slow-growing growth. As for the river bank, it is private property, and until the owners can be brought to see the need of keeping it clean or permitting the city to do so, or co-operate in the planting of shrubs and flowers to deck its banks, the view from the bridges in the center of the city will be as abominous as ever. Let us get together on this river bank proposition and the cleaning up of the city and start about a systematic campaign to make Janesville the "city beautiful." We have had the "swat the fly" campaigns, the spring cleanups, and the summer gardens for students to show how they could arrange and beautify their back yards, but everyone should unite in the present effort to make Janesville the "spotless city of great renown," by urging the beautifying of the banks of this river as viewed from the bridges in the center of the city, at least.

A separate company is formed and needs the support of the community to encourage enlistment, to recruit and drill the men under the new system more than can be done by performances. The man in charge is a man of unusual ordinary experience in military affairs. He has had the training of one of the best of the government's training schools and an experience in the regular army as well as in the Wisconsin national guard organizations and the instruction he will give to men under his command will be invaluable. The company seek recruits and no young man who has an inclination toward military drill can go far wrong by enlisting and availing himself of the opportunity for instruction in the school of the soldier offered.

"Yes sir! Yes sir!" stammered the ambitious, but frightened secretary, and hurriedly deposited the daily armful of mail before his famous employer.

Smear Case burrowed rapidly.

Letters went right and left. Packets went up and down. Postal cards went east and west. Finally the hardware king unearthed what he was looking for. The Suburban Daily Intelligence. Then, with the pages anxiously, he looked feverishly to see what movie was to be on that night.

Edgerton News

Did you ever stop to consider that the two songs that have stirred millions of people to loyalty—the Marcelline and the Star Spangled Banner—were written by men under the stress of national crisis of two nations? Rouget de Lisle wrote his famous song that stirred France in the times of the revolution. His words—"Ye sons of Freedom, wake to Glory"—enthused the revolutionists to deeds of valor. Then came Francis S. Key, prisoner on a man of war bombarding Baltimore in the war of 1812, and his historic song, "The Star Spangled Banner," written on the back of an old envelope, has been sung under sky by loyal Americans. "Oh say can you see, by the dawn's early light," means more now at this crisis than any other song ever written.

The state legislature plans to adjourn now very shortly. They hope to be able to dispose of the bills regarding, separate the wheat from the chaff of the minor measures up for consideration and get down to "cases" as they say, very shortly. Let us hope so. The long, drawn-out sessions are too costly in the class of legislation passed and in money expended. The taxpayers are becoming tired of long, drawn-out debates that start nowhere and end the same place.

The governor of New York announces that if the national guard regiments of his state can not be recruited to their maximum strength, he will resort to drafting men. No need to do that here in Janesville. The Second Separate Company of this city, under acting "Captain" Caldwell, is going to be one of the crack companies of the state guard, and the young men who fail to realize it will miss a whole lot.

Janesville has an organization of Boy Scouts that deserves recognition. If possible, the employment of an efficient Scoutmaster who could devote all his time to the work, would mean much to the future of this organization that is developing the men of the next generation. The rules and regulations of the Scouts are such that the training they receive is worth the support of every parent who has a son of Scout age.

Do not fail to remember Friday evening that the Star Spangled Banner is the national emblem and that when it is sung everyone present should stand. Do not mistake "America" for the song that was written while the guns bombarded Fort Henry and the starry banner waved over the brave men who defended their country's honor.

Ohio has a governor who tells his people to prepare for war. He urges the planting of gardens, the utilizing of the waste spaces to raise food supplies, and he shows more wisdom than many another state executive who sits quietly back and waits for results.

Planning the summer's outing is like figuring on the summer garden in January. Meanwhile the Rock river flows down stream between two wonderful shores that should entice many to enjoy nature at its best near home at a nominal expense.

No time for delay up at Madison. The money needed for defense is voted on far quicker than was the joint resolution of loyalty which dragged along until it lost its significance. "Millions for defense, but not one word for apology."

No need to make the eagle scream, but let the flag fly to every wind, and do not be afraid if it is south, east, north or west one, either.

SKIM MILK CHEESE
BILL HAS HEARING

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

Madison, Wis., March 29.—Assemblyman H. J. Grell of Johnson Creek, big arguments in favor of a bill legalizing the sale and manufacture of skim milk cheeses before the assembly committee on agriculture yesterday afternoon. He said that the Wisconsin law permitted the manufacture of these cheeses in small quantities at the present time, but he thought his bill should be passed to make it legal for larger keepers and that the larger the keeper the better he would keep. He said that these ought to be different from the sizes of the other cheeses.

John Luchsinger, Monroe, spoke in favor of the bill. He said there was a regular market for these cheeses in New York. He declared that skim milk cheeses were not intended to be long keepers and that the larger the keeper the better he would keep. He said that these ought to be different from the sizes of the other cheeses.

News Notes from Movieland

BY DAISY DEAN

Rosemary Tahey.

Some tendencies of the movies during the last year are pointed out in the annual report of the National Association of Motion Picture Exhibitors, which passes upon approximately 98 per cent. of the photoplays exhibited in this country.

In 1916 the number of reels or parts exhibited to its reviewing committees was 9,180. This was a slightly larger number than those reviewed in 1915, the total for that year being 9,

588. The number of different pictures or subjects exhibited in 1916, however, was 4,113, as compared with 5,472 in 1915. The average length of picture in 1916 was 1.75-100 reels.

In 1915, in other words, there were more one-part pictures made than in 1916, when the tendency was toward feature pictures of the five-part type and away from the program or one-part picture.

The development of the serial picture was one of the characteristics of the year. A few of the companies showed a tendency to lay the emphasis on the story rather than on the star. The tendency in subject matter was shown in the increased use of dramas, and plays and been successful, and the fact that a number of novelists and dramatists entered the motion picture field.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) When a fellow flirts with you across the park or on the street does he think you a flirt or does he do it to have fun?

(2) What can you say to a boy who tries to kiss him, so as to leave a good impression and so that he will not think you bashful?

(3) Is it proper to serve soft refreshments when your friend is down to spend the evening?

(4) If a young man asks you to dance and you do not care to, what is the best thing to say?

(5) What are some of the nicest things to order when you are taken out to supper by a young man?

SUNNY SMILES. (6) He usually looks you will flirt, or you are looking for such a thing, and may no mention of him, he will not flirt because he hasn't any audience.

He refuses to kiss him fearlessly and don't be afraid of what he will think.

(7) It is all right to serve a little something once in a while if you have known the boy a long time.

(8) Say, "I don't care to dance this dance."

(9) If you are in doubt say that you want him to order. In case you are getting something after theater, a cold or chicken sandwich, salad, or ice cream, and coffee would be good order.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I have been keeping company with a young man for about three months. He came up to see me twice a week. One Sunday evening my sister stay-makes him a little careful of his expenditures. Richard goes ahead recklessly, spending right and left, and never knows just where he stands until he is suddenly notified that his account is overdrawn.

If we examine Richard for life insurance—he seldom submits to an examination on his own responsibility—we generally find that he is a trifle too glib, has a slightly elevated blood pressure, a rather hard and prominent abdomen, a little indican in the urine, and demonstrable shortness of breath on exertion. Tell-tale signals of the bankruptcy to come are: "Don't you think you've been here long enough?" or "We don't care for your company."

What can you say to a boy who tries to kiss him, so as to leave a good impression and so that he will not think you bashful?

(3) Is it proper to serve soft refreshments when your friend is down to spend the evening?

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I have been keeping company with a young man for about three months. He came up to see me twice a week. One Sunday evening my sister stay-is very convenient to have this celery salt on hand.

A delicious cream of celery soup may be made quickly by scalding a pint of milk with enough of this celery to flavor strongly, then thickening with a little flour dissolved in cold milk and adding a generous lump of butter.

The bones left from lamb, veal or chicken may be stewed and flavored with celery and make a nice clear soup.

PICKLED OYSTERS.

Oysters may be pickled and put aside to serve as oyster salad when fresh oysters are out of season.

Boil oysters twelve whole cloves, one-half pint white wine vinegar, two blades mace, one tablespoon spiced horseradish, one small red pepper.

Wash and drain oysters. Throw them dry into hot kettle, cool until gills are curled; drain, saving this liquor. When oysters and liquor are especially cold, strain liquor through cheesecloth to a pint of liquor and add a pint of white wine vinegar and put in a granite bottle, add spices.

Arrange oysters in glass jars, adjust good rubbers. When vinegar has boiled, dip it carefully over oysters on tops and stand in cold place.

These will keep for some time.

Only white wine vinegar should be used, as oysters do not keep in cider vinegar.

THE TABLE.

Mutton Sausage—Use left-over leg of roast mutton or any other joints from which meat can be got without fat. Chop half pound of lean cooked mutton, mix with one-third cup fine bread crumbs, add one cup chopped oysters and two tablespoons melted butter; season to taste with pepper and salt. Molten with a beaten egg and a little of the oyster liquor, if required. Make into a firm paste and roll into sausage, or make into balls.

Fry seven or eight minutes.

English Walnut Cake—Two cups

sugar, one cup milk, two-thirds cup butter and lard mixed, three cups flour, three eggs, two teaspoons baking powder, one cup walnut kernels cut fine. This cake is better with the nuts put with a knife instead of ground or chopped.

Three-Minute Cake—Sift together

one and one-half cups flour, one cup sugar, one teaspoon baking powder,

one-fourth cup butter, add one well-beaten egg, fill the cup with sweet milk. Stir this into flour mixture.

Beat the batter hard to make it light. Flavor with any preferred extract and bake either in layers or in small "fancy molds."

Rice With Chicken—One cup rice washed and put in stone crock.

Cover two inches with stock dipped of chicken. Salt and cook slowly until done. Do not stir or add more stock. Dip with large spoon, arrange around platter with chicken in center.

Pour gravy over all or serve separately.

Bones of meat and fowl are thrown away away when they could be used in making good soups.

Sheets are scoured and injured

being used on the ironing board.

Sheets are left to dissolve and waste

in the water.

Towels are used for holders.

Lights are left burning when not

used.

Sugar, tea, coffee and rice are

carelessly spilled in the handling.

HOME-MADE CELERY SALT.

Do not throw away the leaves of celery, but spread over a pie tin or dry on back of stove. Then pack on until 8 o'clock—just four hours before the time for filing nomination paper. But after she made up her mind, she lost no time. Jumping into an auto, Miss Mahon made a flying trip through the towns of Somers

Pleasant, Prairie and Bristol, obtained the signatures of sixty-five residents and filed the petition at 1:50 minutes under the limit. There is no opposition to her candidacy. She is a teacher near here.

WASTE.

Waste in the kitchen is often very great from apparently trivial causes.

Here are some reasons for the "H.

C. of L.":

Grease is often thrown away.

Pieces of bread in the bread-box, and cake in the cake-box, are left to dry and mould.

Corks are left out of the molasses or vinegar jug.

The tea canister is left open.

Bones of meat and fowl are thrown away when they could be used in making good soups.

Sheets are scoured and injured

being used on the ironing board.

Sheets are left to dissolve and waste

in the water.

Towels are used for holders.

Lights are left burning when not

used.

Sugar, tea, coffee and rice are

carelessly spilled in the handling.

These sheets are scoured and injured

being used on the ironing board.

Sheets are left to dissolve and waste

in the water.

Towels are used for holders.

Lights are left burning when not

used.

Sugar, tea, coffee and rice are

carelessly spilled in the handling.

These sheets are scoured and injured

being used on the ironing board.

Sheets are left to dissolve and waste

in the water.

Towels are used for holders.

Lights are left burning when not

used.

Sugar, tea, coffee and rice are

carelessly spilled in the handling.

RACINE YOUTH TO WORK
COPPER MINE IN BRAZIL

Racine, March 29.—Edward Bechtel, 19, Racine boy left today for Germany, Brazil, where he and four other young men have organized a copper mine syndicate. The men have invested in Brazil, where, they say, labor is cheap. Laborers can be hired for 25 cents a day. But prices are high. Bechtel said just before leaving: "An ordinary pair of working shoes costs $15 and other articles are in proportion. A case of beer, imported from America to Germany, costs $45 including transportation charges. Bechtel says that he does not drink often.

ORRINE DESTROYS
LIQUOR HABIT

Keen interest in Orrine, the scientific treatment for the drink habit, now on sale at our store continues unabated.

Yet this is not surprising when it is realized that it can be given secretly at home with absolute confidence, and that it quickly destroys all desire for whiskey and other intoxicants. Orrine has saved thousands of drinking men, and is sold under a guarantee to refund the purchase price if, after a trial it fails to benefit.

Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1, secret treatment; Orrine No. 2, voluntary treatment. Costs only $1.00 a box. Ask for booklet.

Mother-Made, Quick Acting Cough Syrup

Should be Kept Handy in Every Home—Easily Prepared and Costs Little.

Mother, you'll never know what you are missing until you make up this inexpensive, quick-acting cough syrup and try it. Children love its pleasant taste and nothing else will loosen a cough or chest cold and heal the inflamed or swollen throat membranes with such ease and promptness. One box is good for grownups and especially as good for grownups as for children.

This mother-cough syrup is made by pouring 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), into a pint bottle and filling the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough remedy than you can buy ready-made for $2.50 a pint, saving of 52¢.

The moment it touches the inflamed, swollen membranes that line the throat and air passages, the healing begins, the phlegm loosens, soreness goes, cough spasms lessen and soon disappear altogether, thus ending a cough quicker than you ever thought possible. It cures common and ordinary coughs as concurved by it in 24 hours or less. Excellent for bronchitis, whooping-cough, spasmodic cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with quinine and is famous the world over for its quick healing effect on the membrane.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for 2½ ounces of Pinex with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

JAPAN PREPARES TO GAIN CONCESSIONS AT TSINGTAU.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tokio, March 29.—Much conjecture is being made here today to how much Japan will add to her already large interests in China as a result of the war, but Baron Hayashi, Japanese Minister to Peking, here, to confer with his government, does not hesitate to make it plain Japan is preparing to ask China for a large concession at Tsingtau, the colony seized from Germany.

Japan can dispose of the Shantung Railway without waiting for the peace conference, and it is absurd to doubt that this railway line will not come under Japanese influence.

Baron Hayashi told the newspaper

"Japan will also ask China to agree to the establishment of a Japanese concession at Tsingtau," he continued. "But whether other foreign countries will be permitted to establish settlements at Tsingtau, as in other Chinese ports, is a question which I cannot discuss now."

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT. Written and publication authorized by the Dry Janesville Committee and to be paid for by them at the rate of 50c per inch.

Dry Janesville Headquarters
106 W. Milwaukee St.
March 29, 1917.

To the Citizens of Janesville
and Surrounding Towns:

Dear Sirs:

Captain O. O. Wiard, the famous Detective, is telling some of his experiences each night at the Rink and illustrating them with lantern pictures that were photographed on the ground.

These lectures are being attended by increasing numbers of people who are making up their minds that law can be enforced anywhere, and that the Saloons stand with the entire Liquor Traffic always and everywhere against the enforcement of Law.

That is the case in Janesville and in the neighboring Towns, and YOU KNOW IT. No argument is needed. But new evidence is coming into the hands of Captain Wiard from day to day. If you doubt it, come and hear him.

Mrs. Wiard is assisting her husband most loyally. Both are speaking at the Community Meetings, to which you are welcome. The Detective himself also speaks to boys and girls after school each day at Dry Headquarters; and he invites parents to come with their children.

This is part of what they are doing. Now, what are you doing, and what are you going to do, to turn out the arrogant power of the saloons from this City and these Towns?

Tomorrow we expect to present to you further evidence as to the effect of no-license in such cities as Superior, Stoughton, Rockford and Denver. Vote Janesville DRY, and next year other cities can be quoting us to the same effect.

Yours for Success,
Dry Janesville Committee.

Collections in all the business houses have been the best in the history of the city. This is especially true of the Grocery business. People are eating better food and wearing better clothes than they ever did before, notwithstanding the high prices.

The Police Department was reorganized and fourteen men added to the force. Their pay was raised $5.00 per month. But expense was cut down and the year closed with a surplus of $4,728.

In eight months, July-February, as compared with the preceding year, total arrests have dropped from 2,157 to 1,384; drunks from 963 to 602. Chief McKinnon says they have arrested men for drunkenness whom they would not have thought of arresting before: first, because public sentiment has demanded it; second, that they might find out where the liquor was obtained.

BILL LANGDON HEAD OF BASEBALL CLUB

Stockholders Organize Last Evening to Manage Local Club in Central Wisconsin League.

Baseball prospects were given a good last evening when a number of stockholders, who have contributed to the success of the team which is to represent this city in the Central Wisconsin League, gathered at the offices of the Commercial Club to perfect plans for a permanent organization and discuss the details of a team. William Langdon was chosen president of the stockholders. Mr. Langdon has been most active in the sale of the stock shares and it is felt his energy and his knowledge of baseball conditions and players in the state of the country will definitely fit him to handle the greater part of the work.

A board of seven directors was elected last evening, composed of: William Langdon, P. V. Kuhn, Louis Levy, Dan Higgins, Charles A. Mungerson, William H. Dougherty and George S. Parker. In the hands of his board most of the work of organization was left. Decisions as to the exact type of organization to be formed as soon as made pending a study of the laws governing loose organizations and partnerships and corporations for the particular purpose of furnishing Sunday ball.

Following the general meeting the directors elected Mr. Langdon, president; P. V. Kuhn, secretary; Charles H. McCoy, treasurer; Louis Levy, William H. Dougherty, P. V. Kuhn, Dan Higgins and George Caldow were named as delegates to the league conference at Fort Atkinson today.

During the discussion the fact that there are probably six or seven first-class players in Janesville was encouraging, and it was thought that one or two more are likely to come here provided they can secure the right kind of work. Available men, proposed league rules and the placing of the actual management of the team were discussed at some length, but no definite steps were taken in these lines.

It was suggested that as soon as the stock and other details are arranged a campaign be started to sell off as many season tickets as possible. The stock originally all of the stock has been sold on the east side of the river, and it was the belief of the committee last evening that the few remaining shares could be easily circulated on the west side.

Another meeting of the board of directors will be called soon, at which time the immediate preparation will be made for the local section. Little could be done until after the league was formed, at which time new rules and schedules were to be discussed. It is likely that throughout the season the management of the team will be in the hands of a playing manager and the three officers of the club. Directors' meetings will probably be held once or twice a month.

SIX CLUBS IN LEAGUE IN TRI-COUNTY CIRCUIT

Waupun, March 29.—The Tri-county Baseball League is planning to maintain a six-club circuit instead of a four-club one this season. It was stated here today. The present members of the league are Beloit, Horicon, Janesville, Waupun. Invitations have been extended to Beaver Dam, Fox Lake, Markesan, Mayville and Ripon. Franchises will be granted to two of these cities.

John Telford, the University of Oregon pitcher who made a start in Tacoma last season, but quit the game in May because of a lame arm, is going to take another whirl at it, and has signed a new contract with Tacoma.

STATE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT IS ON

Appleton Regards Edgerton as Possible "Dark Horse."

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Appleton, Wis., March 29.—The twelfth annual state basketball tournament opened here today.

More than seventy teams will compete for the honor on the armory floor, today, tomorrow and Saturday. The tournament is under the auspices of Lawrence college.

There are far more entries than ever before in the history of basketball in Wisconsin and elimination will be a long and weary grind.

Kenosha, Fond du Lac, Appleton, Eau Claire, West Green Bay, Omro, River Falls and Ripon are among the teams of the eleven, and it was the belief of the committee last evening that the few remaining shares could be easily circulated on the west side.

Another meeting of the board of directors will be called soon, at which time the immediate preparation will be made for the local section. Little could be done until after the league was formed, at which time new rules and schedules were to be discussed. It is likely that throughout the season the management of the team will be in the hands of a playing manager and the three officers of the club. Directors' meetings will probably be held once or twice a month.

Appleton, March 29.—The Tri-county

Baseball League is planning to maintain a six-club circuit instead of a four-club one this season. It was stated here today. The present members of the league are Beloit, Horicon, Janesville, Waupun. Invitations have been extended to Beaver Dam,

Fox Lake, Markesan, Mayville and Ripon. Franchises will be granted to two of these cities.

John Telford, the University of Oregon pitcher who made a start in Tacoma last season, but quit

the game in May because of a lame arm, is going to take another whirl

at it, and has signed a new contract with Tacoma.

Announce Opening Of

THE NEW EDISON

Department

Friday and Saturday, March 30-31

WE have secured a franchise under which we are licensed to merchandise the New Edison, an instrument that is the latest product of the laboratory of Thomas A. Edison, and that marks the highest development of the phonograph. We shall introduce the New Edison to the people of Janesville and Rock County by demonstrations that will be given daily, commencing Friday, March 30th, in our Edison Department. We cordially invite you to this demonstration and opening.

Floral Souvenirs to the Ladies

The Perfect Phonograph

THE NEW EDISON MARKS THE FINAL STEP IN THE EVOLUTION OF THE PERFECT PHONOGRAPH. IT REPRESENTS THE RESULT OF YEARS OF RESEARCH AND EXPERIMENT ON THE PART OF MR. EDISON. IT IS THE CRYSTALLIZATION OF HIS AMBITION TO DEVISE A PERFECT PHONOGRAPH—A PHONOGRAPH THAT WOULD PRODUCE MUSIC INDISTINGUISHABLE FROM THAT OF THE HUMAN VOICE OR HUMAN PLAYED INSTRUMENTS. ALL OF THE KNOWLEDGE GAINED THROUGH HIS ORIGINAL AND BASIC INVESTIGATIONS INTO THE PHENOMENA OF SOUND REPRODUCTION AND ALL THE SECRETS THAT YEARS OF CEASELESS LABOR ALONG THIS LINE HAVE PLACED IN HIS POSSESSION ARE INCORPORATED IN THIS, THE SUPREME INSTRUMENT OF MUSIC. IT IS THE ULTIMATE CREATION OF ITS KIND.

Re-Creates Music

The New Edison actually Re-Creates music. It makes songs that have been sung, and melodies that have been played, live again in all their warm and vibrant beauty. In nearly 300 American cities, before more than 300,000 music lovers and critics, noted artists of the operatic stage and concert platform have matched their voices with the New Edison's Re-Creation of their voices and those who have listened have admitted that it was impossible to distinguish one from the other. Note for note, nuance for nuance—even down to the intangible and indefinable expression of the emotions—this instrument perfectly matches the voices and the strains of instrumental music that have entered into its Re-Creations. This should make you realize that the New Edison is an epoch-making invention and that it marks the achievement of perfect reproduction—the Re-Creation of music.

Special Invitation:

We cordially invite the ladies of this community to be present at our Opening and Special Recitals on Friday and Saturday, March 30th and 31st.

A dainty Floral Souvenir will be presented to each lady who attends this special occasion.

Our new store has been beautifully decorated for the event and we are sure you will enjoy your visit.

Edison Re-Creations

A perfect record is as essential as a perfect instrument in the Re-Creation of music, and Edison Re-Creations are in every way worthy of the superb instrument for which they are designed. They combine with the New Edison in making Music's Re-Creation possible. They cover a magnificent range of music, the masterpieces of the world, rendered by master singers of the world; immortal melodies composed for instrumental presentation, played by artists of renown or by famous organizations of musicians; old favorites and new favorites of all classes and descriptions, rendered with supreme artistry—all of these are listed in the New Edison catalog. And, incidentally, Edison Re-Creations are long wearing and not susceptible to breakage.

Above Comparison

THE WONDERFUL MUSICAL QUALITIES OF THE NEW EDISON AND ITS DISTINCTIVENESS FROM EVERY OTHER SOUND REPRODUCING DEVICE HAVE MADE IT THE CHOSEN INSTRUMENT OF DISCRIMINATING MUSICIANS AND PEOPLE OF THE HIGHEST CULTURE AND REFINEMENT, AND IT NOW IS ADORNING THE FINEST AND MOST EXCLUSIVE DRAWING ROOMS AND MUSIC ROOMS OF AMERICA. IT HAS ACHIEVED THIS HIGH POSITION BECAUSE IT IS THE FIRST INSTRUMENT OF ITS KIND TO PRODUCE REAL MUSIC. HOWEVER BRILLIANTLY A SINGER MAY SING AND HOWEVER BEAUTIFUL A SONG, AN IMPERFECT REPRODUCTION DESTROYS ENTIRELY THOSE QUALITIES THAT SHOULD GIVE THE MUSIC ITS CHARM AND FASCINATION. PEOPLE WEARY OF TALKING-MACHINES BECAUSE THE MUSIC THEY PRODUCE HAS THE SAME UNVARYING, MONOTONOUS AND STOLID TONE. THE NEW EDISON HAS NO TONE. IT GIVES THE VOICE OF THE SINGER OR THE TONES OF THE INSTRUMENTS—NOTHING MORE AND NOTHING LESS. EACH RE-CREATION HAS AS DISTINCT A CHARACTER AS THE VOICE OR INSTRUMENT THAT WENT INTO THE MAKING OF IT AND THIS IS ONE OF THE FEATURES THAT MAKE THE NEW EDISON EVER-NEW AND EVER-DELIGHTFUL.
